The Children's Rescue Center (CRC), is a Christian, non-denominational, non-profit organization working to help improve the lives of orphans and abandoned children in Liberia. Twenty-three volunteers have dedicated their entire lives to the upkeep of these children.

In 2008, the CRC celebrated 22 years with 100 children, ages 3 to 18. The orphanage is situated on a six-acre campus that includes the Christ Family Outreach Church, boy's and girl's dormitories, a kitchen, and a cafeteria. Much of the land is used for agriculture and livestock programs.

The CRC has partnered with the OrphanAge Foundation to establish the King's Arms Academy on adjacent property. This 9-room, fully staffed school provides free education for the mission children.

History

Rev. Mother Roseline A. Clarke and Deacon J. Alexander Clarke Sr. founded the Orphanage in 1986 to give children a refuge. Father Clarke died in July of 2003. When Mother Clarke joined her husband in March of 2006, their grown children who lived at the orphanage carried on God's call to provide a refuge to children.

Vision

The CRC mission is based on James 1:27, which states, "Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after orphans and widows in their distress and to keep oneself from being polluted by the world." NIV

Our goal is to teach children leadership and self-sufficiency to provide an example for the rest of Africa.

Our hope is that some of the children brought up at the CRC will carry on this work.

Projects

Currently the CRC is working to develop the 6-acre campus to better facilitate the ministry through the following means:

- Build modern boy's and girl's dormitories
- Establish a children's clinic
- Extend the agricultural project
- Begin a vocational training school
